

Myeloma Matters

MYELOMA MATTERS

Present the

Annual Multiple Myeloma Dinner Lecture

Myeloma Matters cordially invite you to an evening with

Professor Douglas Joshua AM

Clinical Professor in Medicine University of Sydney
Head of Haematology Royal Prince Alfred and Concord Hospitals

"UNANSWERED QUESTIONS IN THERAPY AND BIOLOGY IN MYELOMA"

Chair. Professor John Carter

Clinical Director Wellington Cancer Centre

Monday 31st July 2006 6:30pm

At the

DUXTON HOTEL

170 Wakefield Street, Wellington

RSVP by 15th July 2006

Registration Essential $20 per person

Cheques payable to Myeloma Matters C/- 17 Richard St Titahi Bay

Presented by Judi & Ian McBride-Wilson

info@myewell.co.nz or 04 236 7564

Douglas E. Joshua, AM BSc(Hons) MB BS(Hons), D Phil (Oxon) FRACP FRCPA is Head of Clinical Haematology at Sydney Cancer Centre, Head of the Sydney south Western Area Health Service Haematology Service, Clinical Professor in Medicine at University of Sydney, and Director of the Institute of Haematology and Senior Staff Specialist in Haematology at Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, New South Wales, Australia. Prof. Joshua is scientific advisor and member of the International Myeloma Foundation.

Registrations from 6:pm

I/We Name:
Address
E-mail & phone:
Position:
Institution:

will be attending the Myeloma Matters Dinner Lecture at the Duxton Hotel Wellington at 6:60pm on Monday 31st July 2006.

Attached is my cheque made payable to Myeloma Matters for $20 per person.

Receipts and Certificates of Attendance available at the Registration desk on 31.7.06.

Post to:
Myeloma Matters
C/- 17 Richard St, Titahi Bay, Wellington